CYBER RISK CONSULTING

AI Governance Services

Overview

K logix helps organizations establish and strengthen AI governance programs to ensure accountability, transparency, and compliance with emerging standards.Our approach fosters thoughtful conversations about AI use, documents processes clearly, and ensures governance extends across AI tooling and workflows.

Our AI Governance Service Includes:

Ensure you meet current and rapidly evolving AI regulations and standards by evaluating where you are today and identifying what you need to do to align with best practices such as ISO 42001

Receive an executive-friendly deliverable with proactive, prioritized guidance, tailored to your organization's AI strategy and tooling environment

Discover new methods and references for responsible AI governance, from risk assessments to ethical guidelines that reduce bias and increase trust

Improve your overall AI governance framework and translate technical requirements into business language, helping leadership and stakeholders understand risks, benefits, and compliance obligations